

Father Dies

Just previous to the Torrance-Redondo game Friday night, Tartar Football Coach Cliff Graybehl received word that his father had passed away that afternoon in Merced, California.

Graybehl's father, Charles C. Graybehl, 61, died of a heart attack. He had made his home in North Hollywood with his wife, Emma.

When salesmen aren't selling, sometimes it indicates a lack of incentive. But when our salesman spotlighted this week isn't selling, nine times out of ten she is cooking up a fresh approach! Selling is more than a piquant sauce for Gertrude, it is the very meat. She has sold things, all kinds of things, starting at a very tender age selling hand-dipped bouquets to passersby.

Gertrude Schwartz was born in Erfurt, in the very heart of Germany, but came to the United States as a young child. Her parents settled first in Texas, then moved to Los Angeles. Gertrude's father and mother were most interested in ranching, so they moved "out in the country" which was what we now know as the "Strip." Here Gertrude helped raise fruits, vegetables, poultry and sell them and here she developed her innate talent for and interest in dealing with people.

When Gertrude went to school in Torrance, it was to a little three-roomed building on Cabrillo, and Arlington, Gramercy, Andrew and Cota were the streets in Torrance! And she still lives in the house her father and mother bought for their first ven-

TO ELECT DIRECTORS

Ballots will be available for the election of directors of the Chamber of Commerce as of November 1, it was announced by Dale Isenberg, executive secretary.

The ballots will contain all the names of members of the chamber. Eight will be nominated who will then enter a run-off election in which four go out about November 15.

The board of directors will appoint the fifth director.

The nomination committee for nominating officers will meet shortly after the election for the purpose of nominating new officers.

The committee consists of the following: Reed Parkin, chairman; Dean Sears and Charles Jones. All are past presidents.

Gertrude is associated in business with Frances Dimitri of Frances Real Estate and Insurance, 2276 Torrance Boulevard, Torrance, a member of the Torrance-Lomita Realty Board, as well as the State organization.

Postpone Trial

Haskell Tidwell, former head of the Harbor Retail Clerks Union, had his trial on three misdemeanor charges postponed until November 6 on account of being hospitalized. Tidwell has been charged with simple assault, brandishing a gun in a threatening manner, and carrying a concealed weapon. Wally Elliott, an official of the union, issued the complaint recently.
